

6.13.1869

day twenty-one

Rested today, as we all need it very much. Three of the boys went hunting, but there is nothing in this part of the country but a few mountain sheep, and they stay where a squirrel could hardly climb. We are looking for better traveling pretty soon, as we have got to the point where the white sandstone caps the hard red, 2000 feet above our heads.