

6.25.1869

day thirty-three

Pulled out at seven and moved down four miles, to the head of another canyon — cragged canyon — and into more rapids; made two portages and camped on the west side, at the head of another impassable rapid to loaded boats; one of the men sick.