

6.11.1869

day nineteen

Rapids and portages all day. By hard work we made three miles. Passed the mouth of a small trout stream coming in from the west. Hall shot an osprey on her nest in the top of a dead pine, near the mouth of the creek. Camped for the night on the west side, under an overhanging cliff.